

§ 1149.4 When is a claim made?

A claim is made to the NEA, when such claim is actually made to:

- (a) An agent, fiscal intermediary, or other person or entity, including any State or political subdivision of a State, acting for or on behalf of the NEA; or
- (b) A recipient of property, services, or money from the Government, or the party to a contract with the NEA.