

§ 1177.5 Form of payment.

Debtors may pay claims in the form of money or, when a contractual basis exists, the Government may demand the return of specific property or the performance of specific services.