

§ 400.147 Priority in provision of services.

A State must plan its social service program and allocate its social service funds in such a manner that services are provided to refugees in the following order of priority, except in certain individual extreme circumstances:

- (a) All newly arriving refugees during their first year in the U.S., who apply for services;
- (b) Refugees who are receiving cash assistance;
- (c) Unemployed refugees who are not receiving cash assistance; and
- (d) Employed refugees in need of services to retain employment or to attain economic independence.
