Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 155

CHAPTER 38

Relative to Family Physician Week.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 15, 2022.]

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

ACR 155, Aguiar-Curry. Family Physician Week.

This measure would designate the week of March 13, 2022, to March 19, 2022, inclusive, as Family Physician Week.

Fiscal Committee: no

WHEREAS, California family physicians have historically demonstrated their dedication to the health and well-being of Californians by emphasizing coordinated care, better health outcomes and patient experience, and health equity; and

WHEREAS, Family physicians have studied for a minimum of seven years from medical school through residency and have received specialized training to provide preventive and primary care medical treatment for the people of our state from birth to end of life; and

WHEREAS, Family physicians receive extensive training in behavioral health, pediatrics, obstetrics, gynecology, and geriatric care; and

WHEREAS, Family physician care is based on knowledge of the whole person in the context of the family and the community and is not limited by age, sex, or type of health condition, and their broad skill set is particularly valuable in communities or geographical areas where certain specialists and subspecialists may not be available; and

WHEREAS, In the United States, almost the majority of the visits to physicians' offices in rural areas are to family physician offices; and

WHEREAS, California family physicians provide high-quality care and reduce costs to the health care system through leadership, collaboration, and innovation, and studies have shown that every $1 increase in primary care expenditures resulted in $13 in savings in other services, such as specialty care, emergency department visits, and in-patient care; and

WHEREAS, During the current COVID-19 pandemic, family physicians have worked on the front lines to provide testing, vaccinations, and critical care to patients ensuring their health, safety, and well-being; and

WHEREAS, The California Academy of Family Physicians is a physician organization with more than 10,000 family physicians, residents, and medical students dedicated to promoting the highest standards of the profession of family medicine, fostering excellence through continuing medical education, and serving as an advocate for family physicians and their patients; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby designates the week of March 13, 2022, to March 19, 2022, inclusive, as Family Physician Week; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.
