

§ 558.503 Exemption From a Survey

Except for the investigation of complaints, an agency is exempt from additional surveys by HHSC if the agency maintains accreditation status for the services for which the agency seeks exemption and applicable to the agency's category of license from an accreditation organization with current HHSC approval. As of the effective date of this rule, accreditation organizations with current HHSC approval on its HCSSA licensure website are the Joint Commission, Community Health Accreditation Partner, and Accreditation Commission for Health Care, Inc.
