

449.61376 Program for control of infection

Each independent center for emergency medical care shall establish a program for the control of infection at the center, including, without limitation:

1.

Policies and procedures for the control of infectious agents and diseases;

2.

Methods of disposal of blood and bodily fluids; and 3.

Methods of treatment of equipment and supplies contaminated with blood and bodily fluids.