

449.807 "Individual support team" defined

"Individual support team" means a team of persons, other than a provider, who provide health care and perform other duties for the benefit of a person with a mental illness.