

449.61248 Maintenance of program to follow recovery of patient

An approved hospital shall maintain a comprehensive program for following the recovery and progress of the patient toward his or her optimum condition of health. The condition of the patient must be assessed after discharge from the hospital by the surgeon or his or her designee.