449.877 Designation of primary place of business on license; operation of multiple work stations; licensee's name to appear on face of license; liability coverage required

1.

Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, each license issued to operate an employment agency must be issued to one person and designate the primary place of business of the employment agency. A person may operate an employment agency at multiple work stations if the employment agency maintains the records for the clients, attendants, other members of the staff of the employment agency and operations of the employment agency at the primary place of business designated on the license.

2.

The name of the person to whom the license is issued must appear on the face of the license.

3.

Each employment agency must retain proof that it has adequate coverage against liabilities to cover claims likely to be incurred in the course of operation. The proof of liability coverage must be verified at the time the employment agency submits its initial application to the Division for a license and upon request by the Division.

4.

As used in this section, "work station" means a satellite office of an employment agency that is established for the sole purpose of providing a location: (a) Where copies of records may be sent to an employment agency; and (b) From which an attendant may work to serve a geographic area outside the geographic area in which the attendant normally works.
