

449.5055 "Direct supervision" defined

"Direct supervision" means the supervision of a task or activity that is provided by a qualified person who is present on the premises of a facility during the period in which the task or activity is performed at the facility.