

449.859 Immediate termination of provision of services

If a revocation of the provisional certificate or the certificate of a provider is pending and the Division determines that the grounds for the revocation place any person at an imminent or probable risk of harm, the Division may immediately terminate the provision of services by the provider.