

449.748 Duties of registered nurse; provision of nursing care by practical nurse or nursing assistant

1.

A registered nurse employed by a nursing pool shall: (a) Provide nursing guidance and care to patients; (b) If care is to be provided to a patient at his or her home, evaluate the home regarding its suitability for the provision of that care; (c) Teach patients and those who provide them with care regarding the appropriate methods of providing that care; (d) Supervise and evaluate the care given to patients on a continuing basis; and (e) Provide any necessary professional nursing care.

(a)

Provide nursing guidance and care to patients;

(b)

If care is to be provided to a patient at his or her home, evaluate the home regarding its suitability for the provision of that care;

(c)

Teach patients and those who provide them with care regarding the appropriate methods of providing that care;

(d)

Supervise and evaluate the care given to patients on a continuing basis; and

(e)

Provide any necessary professional nursing care.

2.

A practical nurse or nursing assistant employed by a nursing pool may provide nursing care if he or she is authorized to practice in this State and supervised by a registered nurse.