

449.99722 Patients' rooms

1.

A patient's room within a recovery center must be designed and equipped in a manner that allows adequate nursing care to be provided and provides comfort and privacy for the patient.

2.

A recovery center shall provide to each patient in the center:(a) A separate bed of proper size and height for the convenience of the patient; (b) A clean, comfortable mattress; (c) Bedding that is appropriate for the weather and climate; (d) Clean linens for his or her bed and bath that are in good condition; and (e) Furniture that is appropriate for the patient's needs.

(a)

A separate bed of proper size and height for the convenience of the patient;

(b)

A clean, comfortable mattress;

(c)

Bedding that is appropriate for the weather and climate;

(d)

Clean linens for his or her bed and bath that are in good condition; and

(e)

Furniture that is appropriate for the patient's needs.