

449.382 Medical library

A hospital shall have a medical library to meet the requirements of the facility, with access to current periodicals on clinical services which are offered.