

449.516 "Product water" defined

"Product water" means the effluent that is obtained from the final component of the water treatment system of a facility.