

449.208 Restrictions on conducting other businesses or providing other services on premises

No other business may be conducted or other services may be provided on the premises of a residential facility if the business or services would interfere with the operation of the facility or the care provided to the residents of the facility.