

449.644 "Mixed facility" defined

"Mixed facility" means a skilled nursing facility which also admits residents of an intermediate care facility who receive care and services appropriate to their needs. Residents are discriminately assigned to beds in the facility and are not assigned to a distinct part of the facility.