

70431 Cardiovascular Surgery Service Definition

Cardiovascular surgery service means the performance of laboratory procedures for obtaining physiologic, pathologic and angiographic data on patients, and cardiovascular operative procedures, each supported by appropriate staff, space, equipment and supplies. It is the intent of this definition that the two aspects of this service shall not exist separately.