

70501 Intermediate Care Service Definition

Intermediate care service means the provision of inpatient care to patients who have need for skilled nursing supervision and supportive care but who do not require continuous skilled nursing care.