

130.1 - Definition

(Rev. 77, Issued: 10-28-05, Effective Date: 10-28-05)

Advance directives are written instructions, such as living wills or durable powers of attorney for health care, recognized under state law and signed by a patient, that explain the patient's wishes concerning the provision of health care if the patient becomes incapacitated and is unable to make those wishes known.