Section 2658-1@ Affidavit for New Disability Insurance Claims - Periods of Trade Dispute

2658-1 Affidavit for New Disability Insurance Claims

-Periods of Trade Dispute

(a)

If the wage records relating to the claim of a person who was involved in a trade dispute during his or her normal disability base period have been destroyed under proper approval, the person shall execute the affidavit provided for in Section 2658 of the code. The affidavit shall be on a form prescribed by the department and shall specify the names and addresses of the employers of the disabled person during the calendar quarters immediately preceding the commencement of the trade dispute which are substituted for any quarters excluded from his or her disability base period, and the approximate wages paid to the disabled person by each of such employers in each of such calendar quarters.

(b)

If the disabled person is unable to furnish in an affidavit the detail specified by this section, the department shall establish the amount of wages based on the information furnished by an affidavit in substantial compliance with this section. The department may verify such information with the disabled person's prior employers.
