

5064 Argument

Any party may apply to present oral or written argument prior to the close of the hearing. The administrative law judge shall grant oral argument. The administrative law judge may grant written argument, and, if so, shall inform the parties of the time and manner by which it shall be filed and served. No proof of service shall be required unless specified by the administrative law judge.