

7112 Comprehensive Assessment

"Comprehensive Assessment" means an evaluation of a person's physical, psychological, and social needs, financial resources, and the strengths and weaknesses of the informal support system and the immediate environment as a basis for determining the current functional ability and potential improvement in order to develop the appropriate services needed to maximize functional independence.