

|->

Title 22@ Social Security

|->

Division 2@ Department of Social Services-Department of Health Services

|->

Part 2@ Health and Welfare Agency-Department of Health Services Regulations

|->

Subdivision 4@ Institutions and Boarding Homes for Persons Aged 16 and Above

|->

Chapter 3@ Adoptions Program Regulations [Renumbered]

|->

Subchapter 4@ Procedures for Independent Adoptions

|->

Article 1@ Agency Responsibility

|->

Section 35093@ Assessment of Child

35093 Assessment of Child

The agency shall assess the child. The assessment shall be in writing and include, but not be limited to, the following information about the child: (1) Identification, including the child's sex, age, race, and ethnicity. (2) A complete medical report as defined at Section 35000(m)(2). (A) (Reserved) 1. (Reserved) (B) (Reserved) (C) The agency shall use the AD 512A when releasing information about the child's medical and family background to the prospective adoptive parents. (D) All recommendations or comments made by the agency to the prospective adoptive parents about the child or his or her family background shall be written on the AD 512A and given to the prospective adoptive parents. 1. (Reserved) (3) Religion. (4) Readiness for adoption and willingness to be adopted if appropriate. (5) Adjustment in the home of the petitioners (6) Other examinations and reports when available.

(1)

Identification, including the child's sex, age, race, and ethnicity.

(2)

A complete medical report as defined at Section 35000(m)(2). (A) (Reserved) 1. (Reserved) (B) (Reserved) (C) The agency shall use the AD 512A when releasing information about the child's medical and family background to the prospective adoptive parents. (D) All recommendations or comments made by the agency to the prospective adoptive parents about the child or his or her family background shall be written on the AD 512A and given to the prospective adoptive parents. 1. (Reserved)

(A)

(Reserved) 1. (Reserved)

1.

(Reserved)

(B)

(Reserved)

(C)

The agency shall use the AD 512A when releasing information about the child's medical and family background to the prospective adoptive parents.

(D)

All recommendations or comments made by the agency to the prospective adoptive parents about the child or his or her family background shall be written on the AD 512A and given to the prospective adoptive parents. 1. (Reserved)

1.

(Reserved)

(3)

Religion.

(4)

Readiness for adoption and willingness to be adopted if appropriate.

(5)

Adjustment in the home of the petitioners

(6)

Other examinations and reports when available.