

|->

Title 22@ Social Security

|->

Division 2@ Department of Social Services-Department of Health Services

|->

Part 2@ Health and Welfare Agency-Department of Health Services Regulations

|->

Subdivision 6@ Preventive Medical Services

|->

Chapter 6@ California Special Supplemental Food Program for Women, Infants and Children

|->

Article 4@ Fair Hearing Procedures for Participants

|->

Section 40705@ Fair Hearing Procedures

40705 Fair Hearing Procedures

(a)

The hearing shall be conducted by an impartial official.

(b)

The appellant shall have the opportunity to: (1) Examine, prior to and during the hearing, the documents and records presented to support the decision under appeal; (2) Question or refute any testimony or evidence, including an opportunity to cross-examine adverse witnesses; (3) Be assisted or represented by an attorney or other person, if desired; (4) Bring witnesses; (5) Advance arguments without undue interference; (6) Submit evidence to establish all pertinent facts and circumstances in the case.

(1)

Examine, prior to and during the hearing, the documents and records presented to support the decision under appeal;

(2)

Question or refute any testimony or evidence, including an opportunity to cross-examine adverse witnesses;

(3)

Be assisted or represented by an attorney or other person, if desired;

(4)

Bring witnesses;

(5)

Advance arguments without undue interference;

(6)

Submit evidence to establish all pertinent facts and circumstances in the case.