The major product categories defined in this section may be, but are not required to be, the same categories used for negotiating contract prices for incontinence medical supplies. The Department may contract for products in all or any portion of these categories or in other categories as it decides are necessary.

(e)

Notwithstanding the listing of major product categories in subsection (c), the establishment of a major product category or the inclusion of a product within a major product category does not mean the product or the category are a Medi-Cal program benefit.
