

64669.00 Application

In addition to meeting the requirements of this Chapter, a public water system that uses municipal wastewater to produce water to augment a source of supply for a public water system's drinking water treatment plant or placed into a public water system's drinking water distribution system shall meet the requirements of this Article.