

67401.1 Definitions

(a)

When used in this article, unless otherwise defined in Health and Safety Code (H&SC) Section 25396 (as it read on June 26, 2012), the following terms have the meanings given below: (1) "Community benefit" means an equitable factor that will be used in conjunction with other equitable factors listed in H&SC Section 25398.8 (as it read on June 26, 2012) that DTSC shall consider when conducting its apportionment of liability. Community benefit may consider protection of public health and the benefit to the environment that may be realized by members of the public and the affected community by implementation of the response action. (2) "Department" means the Department of Toxic Substances Control. (3) "Expedited Remedial Action Program" means the program that was created pursuant to H&SC Section 25396 (as it read on June 26, 2012) et seq. of the Expedited Remedial Action Reform Act of 1994. (4) "Fiscal Year" is the period of the year beginning July 1 and ending the following calendar year on June 30. (5) "National Priorities List" means the list, compiled by the United States Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, Liability Act of 1980 (42 U.S.C. Section 9605), of uncontrolled hazardous releases in the United States that are priorities for long-term remedial evaluation and response.

(1)

"Community benefit" means an equitable factor that will be used in conjunction with other equitable factors listed in H&SC Section 25398.8 (as it read on June 26, 2012) that DTSC shall consider when conducting its apportionment of liability. Community benefit may consider protection of public health and the benefit to the environment that may be realized by members of the public and the affected community by implementation of the response action.

(2)

"Department" means the Department of Toxic Substances Control.

(3)

"Expedited Remedial Action Program" means the program that was created pursuant to H&SC Section 25396 (as it read on June 26, 2012) et seq. of the Expedited Remedial Action Reform Act of 1994.

(4)

"Fiscal Year" is the period of the year beginning July 1 and ending the following calendar year on June 30.

(5)

"National Priorities List" means the list, compiled by the United States Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, Liability Act of 1980 (42 U.S.C. Section 9605), of uncontrolled hazardous releases in the United States that are priorities for long-term remedial evaluation and response.