

70033 Existing Hospital Building

Existing hospital building means an extant structure intended for proper hospital use. This excludes physician offices contiguous with the hospital and independent of the hospital as far as ownership.