

70709 Emotional and Attitudinal Support

Hospitals shall have a written plan for the provision of those components of total patient care that relate to the spiritual, emotional and attitudinal health of the patient, patients' families, visitors designated by patients pursuant to Section 70707 and hospital personnel.