

73105 Special Disability Professional

"Special disability professional" means a physician, a psychiatrist, a clinical psychologist, a social worker, a special education teacher, or a person with an academic degree in learning disabilities, who has at least one year experience or training in the care of the mentally disordered, developmentally disabled or substance abusers.