

79075 Supervision

(a)

Supervision means to instruct employees or subordinates in their duties and to oversee or direct their work, but does not necessarily require the immediate presence of the supervisor.

(b)

Direct supervision means that the supervisor shall be present in the same building as the person being supervised, and available for consultation and assistance.

(c)

Immediate supervision means that the supervisor shall be physically present while a task is being performed by the person being supervised.
