

79307 Residents, Interns and Students

(a)

(Reserved)

(b)

If patient care is provided by residents, interns or medical students, such care shall be in accordance with the provisions of a program approved by and in conformity with the Council on Education of the American Medical Association, the American Dental Association and/or the American Podiatry Association residency training programs of the respective specialty boards or the Education and Training Board of the American Psychological Association.