

79575 Supervision

(a)

Supervision means the instruction of employees or subordinates in the manner of carrying out their duties and overseeing or directing their work.

(b)

Direct supervision means that the supervisor is in the same building as the person being supervised and available for consultation and/or assistance.

(c)

Immediate supervision means that the supervisor is physically present while a task is being performed by the employee or subordinate.