

84272 Personal Rights

(a)

The provisions of Section 84072 govern the personal rights of children under six years of age with the exception of Section 84072(d)(8), which does not apply to children under six years of age.

(b)

The licensee shall ensure that each child is accorded the right to visit and contact siblings, family members, and relatives privately, unless prohibited by court order, and to ask the court for visitation with the child's siblings. Visiting does not include the time spent by a minor parent as the primary caregiver for their child.

(c)

The licensee shall impose differing visiting rules, depending on the visitor, that person's role in the child's needs and services plan, and the need to protect the child from that person.
