Section 89475.1@ Emergency Medical Assistance, Injections, and Self-Administration of Medications

CA

89475.1 Emergency Medical Assistance, Injections, and Self-Administration of Medications

(a)

A caregiver shall ensure that persons who provide emergency medical assistance and injections to a "child" are trained as specified in Health and Safety Code section 1507.25.

(b)

Emergency medical assistance and injections for severe diabetic hypoglycemia and anaphylactic shock may be provided to a "child" as specified in Health and Safety Code section 1507.25.

(c)

Subcutaneous injections of other medications, including insulin, as prescribed by the physician of a "child," may be provided as specified in Health and Safety Code section 1507.25.

(d)

The caregiver shall ensure the date, time and dose of all injections administered to a "child," including injections self-administered by a "child," are documented by the person giving the injection as specified in Health and Safety Code section 1507.25.

The caregiver shall ensure the date, time and results of glucose testing and monitoring are documented by the person assisting   with the testing as specified in Health and Safety Code section 1507.25.

(f)

Unless prohibited by court order, a "child"   may self-administer medication or injections if the physician of a "child" gives   permission. The caregiver shall ensure that a "child" knows how to: (1) Self-administer their medication and   injections, (2) Document when they   self-administer their medication and injections, and (3) Properly store the medication so that it is   not accessible to other children.

(1)

Self-administer their medication and   injections,

(2)

Document when they   self-administer their medication and injections, and

(3)

Properly store the medication so that it is   not accessible to other children.

(g)

The caregiver shall maintain all documentation   of injections and glucose testing and monitoring specified in subsections (d) and   (e) in the current record or file for a "child."
