

|->

Title 22@ Social Security

|->

Division 7@ Health Planning and Facility Construction

|->

Chapter 1@ Health Planning and Resources Development

|->

Article 1@ Definitions

|->

Section 90051@ Provider

90051 Provider

(a)

"Provider" includes but shall not be limited to the following types of individuals who: (1) Are engaged in the provision of health care to individuals, in the administration of health facilities, or in the administration of related health organizations. Such individuals shall, when required by law, be licensed in California or certified by the appropriate national professional association or have received professional education or training in preparation for licensure or certification. (2) Hold a fiduciary position with or has fiduciary interest in one of the following: (A) Health facilities or related health organizations engaged in the provision of health care. (B) Educational institutions engaged in health related research and education. (C) Manufacturer or producer, including related associations and organizations, of drugs or health related articles. (3) Receive directly or through a spouse more than 10 percent of their gross annual income from any one or combination of the following: (A) Fees or other compensations received from an educational institution for performing research or instruction related to the provision of health care. (B) Health facilities, related health organizations engaged in the provisions of health care and education institutions engaged in health related research and education. (C) Manufacturers or producers, including related associations and organizations, of drugs or health related articles. (4) Are engaged in issuing any health insurance policy or contract for individuals, group medical service benefits, health facilities or related health organizations. (5) Are members of the immediate family of an individual defined as a provider.

(1)

Are engaged in the provision of health care to individuals, in the administration of health facilities, or in the administration of related health organizations. Such individuals shall, when required by law, be licensed in California or certified by the appropriate national professional association or have received professional education or training in preparation for licensure or certification.

(2)

Hold a fiduciary position with or has fiduciary interest in one of the following: (A) Health facilities or related health organizations engaged in the provision of health care. (B) Educational institutions engaged in health related research and education. (C) Manufacturer or producer, including related associations and organizations, of drugs or health related articles.

(A)

Health facilities or related health organizations engaged in the provision of health care.

(B)

Educational institutions engaged in health related research and education.

(C)

Manufacturer or producer, including related associations and organizations, of drugs or health related articles.

(3)

Receive directly or through a spouse more than 10 percent of their gross annual income from any one or combination of the following: (A) Fees or other compensations received from an educational institution for performing research or instruction related to the provision of health care. (B) Health facilities, related health organizations engaged in the provisions of health care and education institutions engaged in health related research and education. (C) Manufacturers or producers, including related associations and organizations, of drugs or health related articles.

(A)

Fees or other compensations received from an educational institution for performing research or instruction related to the provision of health care.

(B)

Health facilities, related health organizations engaged in the provisions of health care and education institutions engaged in health related research and education.

(C)

Manufacturers or producers, including related associations and organizations, of drugs or health related articles.

(4)

Are engaged in issuing any health insurance policy or contract for individuals, group medical service benefits, health facilities or related health organizations.

(5)

Are members of the immediate family of an individual defined as a provider.