

91301 Basic Services

"Basic services" means those services required to be provided by the facility in order to obtain and maintain a license and include, in such combinations as may be applicable to the type of facility to be operated, the following: personal care, protection, supervision, assistance, guidance or training, planned activities, food service and incidental medical and dental care.