

91319 Maximum Loan

The maximum amount of the loan shall be no greater than that which is determined by the Department as necessary to effect compliance with Section 13113 of the Health and Safety Code. The actual amount of each loan shall be determined by the Department, in the exercise of its discretion, considering the most equitable means of achieving the purpose of the program within available funds, taking into account the sums needed by each applicant and those needs anticipated for all potential applicants.