

92604 Continuing Approval

(a)

Continuing approval shall be contingent upon review of written information submitted by the project of the project's progress in meeting stated objectives and its compliance with plans described in the approval or amended application.

(b)

Approval may be granted for periods of time up to one year as determined by the Director.