

97530.11 Infection Control Program

(a)

A written infection control program shall be adopted and approved by the Office. The program shall include a system for reporting infections which shall include and identify infections which are: (1) Evident at the time of admission; (2) Possibly acquired and evident during the patient's stay; (3) Possibly acquired during the patient's stay and evident following discharge;

(1)

Evident at the time of admission;

(2)

Possibly acquired and evident during the patient's stay;

(3)

Possibly acquired during the patient's stay and evident following discharge;

(b)

Activities of the program shall include concurrent surveillance of patients and staff, prevention techniques, treatment and reporting of infections.