

97530.5 Medical Records

The Administrator shall appoint a person with experience and/or training in medical records to supervise the medical records service. If the appointed supervisor is not accredited by the American Medical Records Association, the facility shall contract with an accredited record technician to advise the medical records supervisor.