

100015.01 Affiliate Program

"Affiliate program" means the training program that provides an approved child care pediatric first aid, CPR, or preventive health and safety training because of its association with a training program approved by the EMS Authority.