

100015.08 Course Completion Document

"Course completion document" means the card, certificate, or other written document issued by an approved training program to a student who has completed the child care pediatric first aid, pediatric CPR, or the preventive health and safety training.