

100135.06 Promptly Available

"Promptly" or "promptly available" means

(a)

responding without delay when notified and requested to respond to the hospital;

and

(b)

being physically available to the specified area of the trauma center within a period of time that is medically prudent and in accordance with local EMS agency policies and procedures.