

100135.15 Trauma Service

A "trauma service" is a clinical service established by the organized medical staff of a trauma center that has oversight and responsibility of the care of the trauma patient. It includes, but is not limited to, direct patient care services, administration, and as needed, support functions to provide medical care to injured persons.