

100161.01 California Emergency Medical Services Information System (Cemsis)

"California emergency medical services information system" or "CEMSIS" means the secure, standardized, and centralized electronic information and data collection system administered by the California EMS Authority which is used to collect statewide emergency medical services (EMS) and trauma data.