

100860 Public Access to Records

Any person who wishes to inspect or copy records regularly maintained by a contractor may do so upon written request. Information and records shall be made available to the requestor in accordance with the Public Records Act (Government Code Section 6250, et seq.) except for information and records which are exempt from the requirements of disclosure pursuant to the Information Practices Act of 1977 (Civil Code, Section 1798, et seq.).