

110146 Comity

"Comity" means the common law practice of a tribunal voluntarily recognizing the legislative or judicial laws or decisions of another tribunal as a matter of courtesy, where the legislative or judicial laws or decisions are found to be valid under the law of the issuing tribunal and where such recognition is harmonious with the public policy of the recognizing tribunal.